THE CONTRACT OF INSURANCE

The policy wording, the schedule and any endorsements form a legally binding contract of insurance between you and us and should be read as one document. They set out what is covered and what is not covered, together with the sums insured and any special terms applicable.

This policy sets out all the circumstances in which you can make a claim. It is not a maintenance contract and does not protect against every loss. Please check that the contract is suitable for your needs.

In return for the payment of the premium shown in the schedule, we agree to provide indemnity, subject to the terms and conditions contained in (or endorsed on) your policy documents, in respect of the cover detailed within this policy wording for any incidents which occur during the period of insurance.

This contract is written in English and all communications about it will be in English. Unless specifically agreed to the contrary, this contract of insurance will be governed by the laws of England and Wales and subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.

Information you have given us

In deciding to accept this insurance and in setting the terms and premium, we have relied on the information you have given us. You have a duty to inform us of every material circumstance that you know or ought to know, in a way that is reasonably clear and accessible to us. A matter is material if it would influence the judgement of a prudent insurer as to whether to accept the risk or the terms of the insurance (including premium).

For the purposes of 'every material circumstance' mentioned above, you are expected to know the following:

1. If you are an individual, what is known to the individual and anybody who is responsible for arranging your insurance.
2. If you are not an individual, what is known to anybody who is part of your senior management or anybody who is responsible for arranging your insurance.
3. Whether you are an individual or not, what should reasonably have been revealed by a reasonable search of information available to you. The information may be held within your organisation or by any third party (including, but not limited to, the broker, subsidiaries, affiliates or any other person who will be covered under the insurance). If you are insuring subsidiaries, affiliates or other parties, we expect that you will have included them in your enquiries, and that you will inform us if you have not done so. The reasonable search may be conducted by making enquiries or by any other means.

You also have a duty to answer any questions we have asked of you accurately and to ensure that any information provided by you is correct. If we establish that you breached your duty to make a fair presentation of the risk and this was deliberate or reckless, we may treat this contract as if it had never existed, refuse to pay all claims and need not return any of the premiums paid.

If we establish that you breached your duty to make a fair presentation of the risk and this was not deliberate or reckless:

- If we would not have entered into the contract at all, we will treat this contract as if it had never existed and refuse to pay all claims, but must return the premiums paid;
- If we would have entered into this contract but on different terms (other than terms relating to the premium), we will treat the contract as if it had been entered into on those different terms from the outset;
- If we would have entered into the contract but would have charged a higher premium, we may reduce the amount we pay for a claim (and if applicable, the amount already paid on prior claims) by the proportion of the underpaid premium. For example, if the premium would have been 25% higher based on the correct terms, a claim payment will be reduced by 25%;
- We may cancel your insurance in accordance with General Condition 14 of this policy wording.

It is a condition precedent to our liability under this insurance that all current local and national regulations, inspections and certifications applicable to both property owners and property occupiers are complied with. CX01 - 'Day One' Reinstatement

The premium has been calculated on the Declared Value provided by you for each item.

The sum insured will be declared subject to average if at the time of damage to the property insured, the Declared Value in respect of that property is less than the cost of reinstatement at the start date of the relevant period of insurance. If this happens, you will be responsible for the difference in value and will be expected to bear that share of the loss.

At the start date of each period of insurance you must notify us of the Declared Value of each item. In the absence of such declaration, the last amount declared by the insured will be taken as the Declared Value for the ensuing period of insurance.
